1. PREAMBLE, OBJECTIVE OF THE RULES

1.1 Duelbox Interaktív Rendezvénytechnika Korlátolt Felelősségű Társaság (Seat: 1138 Budapest, Váci út 175. 3. em.; Registration number: 01-09-275223; VAT number: 25438433-2-41.; hereinafter: „Company”) created a web-based application making any event or conference more efficient and interactive for the attendants (hereinafter: „Duelbox”). The company operates websites to grant access to the services of Duelbox and to keep in touch with the users (hereinafter: „Homepage”).

1.2 During its activity the Company processes personal data defined in Article 4, point (1) of regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC („GDPR”) originated from the Companies clients, recipients of its marketing messages and visitors to its facilities, as well as other affected persons. These rules and information on data protection (hereinafter: „Rules”) include the conditions of data processing of the Company of these personal data.

1.3 Duelbox and the Homepage is owned and operated by the Company.

1.4 The Company, as data controller, subjects itself to the contents of these Rules, furthermore undertakes liability to that all the data management connected to its activities shall be compliant to the requirements specified in these Rules and the valid Hungarian and EU legal regulations.

1.5 The objective of these Rules is that the processing of personal and incidental sensitive data

- (a) necessary for using the services of Duelbox and services connected to the Homepage,
- (b) necessary for the popularization of Duelbox via the Homepage, and
- (c) necessary for the activity of the Company should take place pursuant to the provisions of the prevailing Hungarian and EU legal regulations on data protection. The objective of these Rules furthermore is that the Company previous to the processing of personal data to provide clear and detailed information on all facts relating to the processing of personal data, especially the purpose and legal basis of the data processing, the persons authorized to process and manage the data, the duration of the data processing, and to determine who can access the data and which rights and remedies are available for the affected person.

1.6 Furthermore, the objective of these Rules is that in the whole scope of services provided by the Company, the user can be assured of that – regardless of the user’s sex, nationality or home address – the user’s rights and basic rights of freedom, such as especially their right to private life will be respected while their personal data is processed electronically (data protection). The Company shall process the recorded personal data in confidence, by complying with the legal regulations and international recommendations on data protection and these Rules on data protection.

2. INTERPRETATION OF THE RULES, DEFINITIONS

- 1.7 These Rules shall be interpreted based on the principles of English language in consideration of the general legal principles of the Hungarian civil law. When interpreting these Rules, the words and phrases written in capital letters shall have the meaning conferred to them on their first place of appearance in the Rules – independently of their tense, mode and case, or whether they are singular or plural.

Where the controller has made the personal data public and is obliged pursuant to the above mentioned to erase the personal data, the controller, taking account of available technology and the cost of implementation, shall take reasonable steps, including technical measures, to inform controllers which are processing the personal data that the data subject has requested the erasure by such controllers of any links to, or copy or replication of, those personal data.

Erasure shall be refused (i) for exercising the right of freedom of expression and information; (ii) for compliance with a legal obligation which requires processing by law to which the controller is subject or for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller; (iii) for reasons of public interest in the area of public health; (iv) for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes likely to render impossible or seriously impair the achievement of the objectives of that processing; or (v) for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

5.4 Right to restriction of processing

The affected person shall have the right to obtain from the Company restriction of processing where one of the following applies:

- (a) the accuracy of the personal data is contested by the affected person, for a period enabling the Company to verify the accuracy of the personal data;
- (b) the processing is unlawful and the affected person opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of their use instead;
- (c) the Company no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by the affected person for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims;
- (d) the affected person has objected to processing pursuant pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the controller override those of the data subject.

Where processing has been restricted, such personal data shall, with the exception of storage, only be processed with the affected persons consent or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person or for reasons of important public interest of the EU or of Hungary.

An affected person who has obtained restriction of processing shall be informed by the Company before the restriction of processing is lifted.

5.5 Right to data portability

The affected person shall have the right to receive the personal data concerning him or her, which he or she has provided to a controller, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from the controller to which the personal data have been provided, where:

- (a) the processing is based on consent or on a contract pursuant; and
- (b) the processing is carried out by automated means.

5.6 Right to object

The data subject shall have the right to object, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, at any time to processing of personal data concerning him or her which is based on point (e) or (f) of Article 6(1) of GDPR, including profiling based on those provisions. The controller shall no longer process the personal data unless the controller demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

Where personal data are processed for direct marketing purposes, the data subject shall have the right to object at any time to processing of personal data concerning him or her for such marketing, which includes profiling to the extent that it is related to such direct marketing.

Where the data subject objects to processing for direct marketing purposes, the personal data shall no longer be processed for such purposes.

At the latest at the time of the first communication with the data subject, the mentioned above shall be explicitly brought to the attention of the data subject and shall be presented clearly and separately from any other information.

The data subject may exercise his or her right to object by automated means using technical specifications.

Where personal data are processed for scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes, the data subject, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, shall have the right to object to processing of personal data concerning him or her, unless the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out for reasons of public interest.

5.7 Notification obligation regarding rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing

The controller shall communicate any rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing to each recipient to whom the personal data have been disclosed, unless this proves impossible or involves disproportionate effort. The controller shall inform the data subject about those recipients if the data subject requests it.

7. RECORDS OF PROCESSING ACTIVITIES

7.1 The Company shall be obliged, and the Company representative, shall maintain an electronic record of processing activities under its responsibility. That record shall contain all of the necessary information prescribed in GDPR and Info Law.

7.2 The Company and the Company representative shall make the record available to the supervisory authority on request

8. PERSONAL DATA BREACH

8.1 In the case of a personal data breach, the Company shall without undue delay and, where feasible, not later than 72 hours after having become aware of it, notify the personal data breach to the supervisory authority, unless the personal data breach is unlikely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of natural persons. Where the notification to the supervisory authority is not made within 72 hours, it shall be accompanied by reasons for the delay

8.2 When the personal data breach is likely to result in a high risk to the rights and freedoms of natural persons, the Company shall communicate the personal data breach to the affected person without undue delay.

8.3 The communication to the affected person shall not be required if any of the following conditions are met:

- (a) the Company has implemented appropriate technical and organisational protection measures, and those measures were applied to the personal data affected by the personal data breach, in particular those that render the personal data unintelligible to any person who is not authorised to access it, such as encryption;
- (b) the Company has taken subsequent measures which ensure that the high risk to the rights and freedoms of affected person is no longer likely to materialise;
- (c) it would involve disproportionate effort. In such a case, there shall instead be a public communication or similar measure whereby the affected persons are informed in an equally effective manner.

- 8.4 If the Company has not already communicated the personal data breach to the affected person, the supervisory authority, having considered the likelihood of the personal data breach resulting in a high risk, may require it to do so or may decide that any of the conditions referred to in clause 12.3. are met

9. LEGAL REMEDY

- 9.1 If the affected person believes that the Company by the data processing realised by itself breached these Rules or the prevailing legal regulations, then, in order to stop the presumed unlawful data processing, the affected person shall contact Nemzeti Adatvédelmi és Információszabadság Hatóság (Hungarian National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information) (address: 1125 Budapest, Szilágyi Erzsébet fasor 22/. Mail address: 1387 Budapest Pf. 40.).
- 9.2 The affected person shall be entitled to initiate a legal procedure against the Company where it believes that the rights regulated the Rules are breached by the Company. The court shall act in urgency. The tribunal shall have jurisdiction in the litigation – according to the affected person’s decision – based on the home address of the affected person or the seat of the Company.

10. MODIFICATION, INTERPRETATION, EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE RULES
